Today April 1st.

City election Monday.

Tomorrow Passion Sunday.

Mr. Horace Kergosien has returned from a social visit of ten days to Monroe, La., the guests of friends.

Miss Rosetta McGinn returned to New Orleans Monday evening, after a week-end visit to her sister, Mrs. C. L. Waller, on the beach front.

Dixie Sweet Shop Pralines, divinity and fudge sandwich for sale by Miss Josie Welch. For special orders use 'phone 288.

Authority has been given for the opening to public traffic of Main street from Front street to the court house on Monday next.

Edwards Bros. have sold their garage building in Washington street to A. Battistella, who made the purchase as an investment. The place has already been leased to a party from New Orleans.

Mrs. A. Toca has returned from New Orleans, where she attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Chopin, aged 77 years. Mrs. Toca has the sympathy of her many friends and acquaintances, both in Bay St. Louis and New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lacoste returned home last night from New Orleans, where their son "Bobby" underwent an operation for the removal of his tonsils, at Toussaint Infirmary, Dr. Lynch, surgeon. The Echo learns the young patient is doing nicely, and we hope he will soon be up and out again with his companions.

Mr. Will Forwood has sold his beach dwelling recently purchased from Charles Sanger, and in turn purchased the handsome building lot corner Second and Ulman avenues, where he will begin the building of a new home in the immediate future.

Mrs. E. J. Lacoste was the gracious hostess on Tuesday afternoon to a party of lady friends at the hospitable home on the beach front. She was assisted in receiving by her sister-in-law, Miss Lacoste. This was one of a series of parties Mrs. Lacoste has planned for the early spring season.

The Wednesday night Lenten instructions by Rev. Father Paul chaplain of St. Stanislaus College, at the church of Our Lady of the Gulf, are unusually interesting and attract many. His subject last Wednesday night was why the Catholic church uses the Latin language in its ceremonial exercises.

Mayor Webb has received from the U. S. government through the courtesy of Congressman Johnston, a liberal supply of flower and vegetable seed, and will distribute these to all who will apply at the City Hall, beginning Monday during office hours. The seed are free for the asking, and for the public in general as long as the supply lasts.

A delightful children's party was given at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Alvah P. Smith Sunday afternoon on the occasion of the 1st natal anniversary of Master Alvah P. Smith, the idol of the home. There was quite a gathering of little ones, with a sprinkling of grown-ups, and the affair, needless to say, was a most enjoyable one.

Members of the Atlanta Base Ball team, training in Bay St. Louis the past several weeks, took their departure last night, closing their quarters here for the season. They left for Pensacola, where they will play two games before reaching the home ball field, where several games will be played. On the 12th the season will open at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Regular election for the city of Bay St. Louis will take place Monday, April 3rd, when the voters will elect the mayor and the several other city officials, including one alderman from each ward. As the names of no other candidates but the nominees of the recent Democratic primaries will appear on the official ballot, their election is a foregone conclusion; Monday's election simply a matter of form and to comply with the provisions of the law in reference thereto.

COLUMN DE BULL.

(By Fuller Bull.)

HOW THE WATER DOES SMELL!

This burg is gettin' along so dern fast in her improvement, that it stinks! Don't believe it, Bill? Just you get a nosel of that quintsence of quait what comes outa the sewer what we get off'n the bosom of Dame Nature, an' you'll get 'hep soon. Gosh, but the old lady must have a horrible spell of indigestion, eh?

PAGE MARY GARDEN, ROY.

A news item what we vizzed in the paper from the West Coast says as to the how Mary Garden arrived at a big city out in Oregon. She met at the depot by the Governor of the city who smacked her a 'bawling kisser. We reckon that guys musta served oysters to A. E. F. an' got the habit of smacking the ladies. Anyhow, Mary cried for—no, we didn't say MORE—joy. Wonder if Miss Mary's comin' to the Bay. Doggon, wouldn't Bob weave a Webb around those ruby lips of Mary! O, Boy! How about it, Yerhomer?

ORDER OF BAD COWBOYS.

All you gotta do to be a full member of "The Mee-ow Order of Kergosien Cowboys" is to buy 'nough "All-day suckers" for the gang. Scuse me, I mean covey. The rumor is out tha tour friend Rene is gettin' a bit jealous an' intends hangin' a sign to the viz: "You May Perk Here." You know M.O.K.C. doesn't "perk" he "perks." A lively discussion will now be entertained on the merits of a "Mary Garden Sundae." Mee-ow! Bad Dog-Cowboys will not be tolerated.

WHERE THE SIDEWALK ENDS.

We are told that durin' the meetin' of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, the sidewalk (whose nickname is Banquette) proposition was led in, but it got attacked by a Blaise an' finally was made so Sick that it was voted out on a litter. That's a hard proposition, Bo, when it gets "set," anyhow, it always ends in the gutter.

FROM SEMI-DODO TO WALLOP.

Last Saturday of the p.m. at the Happy Hittin' Grounds there were various and sundry exhibits of the Manly Art, from the hit-an-run to the semi-dodo wallop.

One "Kangaroo" was holdin' down the grand stand in fine shape, an' drawin' the crowd's like molasses does bees, when along comes a guy what gets called to dinner by the cogene of Brewer; what says that he knows a way to stop rapid transit of the foresaid Kang, all of which the said Brewer performeth in a couple spasms.

When the husky was asked how he did it, he smoled a smile on' 'emitt-ed somethin' as to the followin': "Well, you know, fellas, it's born in us guys, a Kangaroo is fulla 'Tops, an' a Brewer knows how to tend to anythin' what's got 'Hops in it.'"

Bay, page the Prohibition agent!

CELLARS ARE GETTING LOW.

Tolkin' about somethin' what's got hops, reminds us of what we saw in the press that some of our Wise Ones up Washington way in Congress are beginnin' to hedge a bit, an' are now remarkin' that maybe this here Volstead law think is a little too tight an' ought be loosened up a spell.

We are very much under the impress that the tellars of the said Wise Ones are beginnin' to show naked shelves, what!

THE MYSTICS OF B-W-Y & A-C.

Lets talk Turkey: When are all you "Keep-Outs" guys going to join the Bay-Waveband Yacht & Athletic Club?

A BOON FOR THE FAT ONES.

Plenty chance for the fat folks to practice REDUCIN' soon as the new seawall gets finished; it's goin' to be like steps, an' mighty temptin' for exercise.

PICKWICK HOTEL PURCHASED.

Bay St. Louis landmark will give way to the new.

Mr. Shansy and his sisters, Mrs. Toulme and Miss Shansy, who conducted the Pickwick, made quite a success of their venture. However, wishing to retire, the property has been on the market for several years, and with the inability to secure adequate hired help during and after the war, the hotel was operated only in part and during the summer, closed one or two winters excepting this season when it is operated on the European plan only. Thus the activity has been curtailed by a combination of circumstances over which there seemed to be no control.

Bay St. Louis, growing fast as it has been, has been a landmark.

The hotel of the Pickwick, which was a landmark, has been sold to a new owner, and although a hackneyed expression, it is fitting to say the Bay Hotel will fill a long-felt want.

It is proposed, like all first-class resort hotels, to make this one the very hub and special center of the city, to bring visitors here from all over the country the year 'round, to cater to that class seeking high class accommodations at moderate prices; to take care of all who may wish to come to Beautiful Bay St. Louis, whether it be summer, winter or between seasons. In short it will be a veritable Mecca.

The gentlemen who have evinced such commendable enterprise backed by their business talents and money are to be congratulated on their progressiveness, and the very best wishes and co-operation of the community is with them.

CARD OF THANKS.

Although weighted under the burden of our great sorrow and crushed in spirit, we wish to thank one and all who were with us in the death of our boy Horace, we are profoundly grateful to one and all and wish to voice our thanks and appreciation.

Especially do we wish to render expression of our thanks to Mrs. H. K. Sinclair, Mrs. Dora Baker and family, Mrs. W. L. Bourgeois, W. A. Sigerson, Frank Stevenson, the pupils and teachers of Central School and the members of Parent-Teachers Club. We shall never forget the people of Bay St. Louis for their assistance and sympathy.

Gratefully,

MR. AND MRS. W. H. SMITH, Parents.
